

I want the current no call legislation to remain in full force.
I am appalled that any business would still want to plague me with telemarketing even after I have expressly asked them not to by joining the "wisconsin do not call list". No business in Wisconsin should have the right to usurp the rights of the individual citizen. Thank you Gov. Doyle for protecting my rights, keep up the good fight!!!!!!!
Sincerely, Polly Cisco